

Sellers Wanted!

If you have gently used children's items that your children no longer need, register to be a consignor. Sell items without yard sale hassles!

SWW Kidsignment Sale

March 24th - 25th, 2012

LOT sales available! NEW THIS SALE!

Clothing lots, toy lots, etc. may now be sold.

Lots will be featured in our Friday pre-sale as well as available to the public during the weekend sale days.

Lots will be available for online viewing prior to the sale if the consignor chooses (as is highly recommended) to upload pictures to our site. For security reasons, lots will not be able to be opened for viewing during the sale. Purchases will be made based on the photos shown and description given, much like online auction sites. As with the rest of our sale, all purchases are final.

SWW Kidsignment is a consignment event held twice each year: BUY & SELL children's & maternity clothes, shoes, toys, furniture, all sorts of baby equipment, books, games, bedding, room decor, outdoor toys, and much more!

Online entry is happening now at swwfamily.com
